Blue Demon Day is Feb. 28
On Saturday, Feb. 28, at 1 p.m. CST, DePaul alumni and friends across the country will watch the men’s basketball team face off against Butler on Blue Demon Day. Cheer the Blue Demons to victory at Allstate Arena, or join us at the many game watches we will be hosting nationwide. Be sure to keep the spirit alive on Sunday, March 1, as the women’s team takes on Marquette at McGrath-Phillips Arena at 2 p.m. CST.

CDM Adds School of Design
The College of Computing and Digital Media has created the School of Design for those interested in graphic design, new technologies, social practices and designing games. As of the winter quarter, the school now offers established undergraduate and graduate programs and plans to add more in the near future. Undergraduate programs include computer game development, graphic design, and interactive and social media, and graduate programs are offered in digital communications and media arts, computer game development, and human-computer interaction.

Art Museum Exhibition Connects Art and Environmental Science
The DePaul Art Museum’s latest exhibition focuses on soil, the impact it has on human life, and how activities like large-scale farming and deforestation threaten health on a global scale. Bringing together the works of contemporary artists, the exhibition explores the multiple aspects of soil, documenting natural processes and human intervention while proposing innovative solutions and philosophical perspectives using leading scientific approaches. Attend for free through April 26.

Women’s Basketball Player Makes Mid-Season Award List
The Phoenix Club of Philadelphia recently announced that DePaul senior guard Brittany Hrynko has been named to the Dawn Staley Award Mid-Season Watch List. The Dawn Staley Award was established in 2013 to recognize the nation’s best Division I women’s basketball guard. Hrynko, who leads DePaul with a 19.4 scoring average, is one of 16 players in line to receive the annual award, which will be announced during the Division I women’s basketball championship Final Four weekend.
