Art Museum Exhibition Features Photographs of Chicago
See stunning photographs of Chicago and its surroundings in the latest exhibition at DePaul University Art Museum. "Liminal Infrastructure," which showcases photographs from one of the world's largest portable cameras, is presented in partnership with the Chicago Humanities Festival and runs for free through Aug. 9. Show Us Where You Display Your DePaul Pride
For those of you planning to take a trip this summer, be sure to pack a piece of your alma mater in your suitcase. Take a high-resolution photo of yourself dressed in your favorite Blue Demon gear, and send it to us along with your full name, graduation year and location where the photo was taken. Your DePaul Pride picture could end up in a future issue of DePaul Magazine or be posted online for the alumni community to see.

Track and Field Endowed Scholarship
Steve and Jessica (LAS '91) Sarowitz have been tremendous advocates of DePaul athletics. From their gifts supporting the outdoor track facility at Lane Tech, to their more recent funding of the Pat Savage Endowed Scholarship, their DePaul pride shines brightly. Learn more about the Sarowitz's contributions to DePaul and beyond.
