MAY 2020

12, TUESDAY
Departure

The big day has arrived! This afternoon we’ll meet at the Chicago O’Hare Airport to check in for the overnight flight to Paris. (D in-flight)

13, WEDNESDAY
Paris

Bonjour! Welcome to France! Upon arrival in Paris, we’ll meet our tour manager/driver, Joop Timmers. We’ll travel directly to the hotel for early check-in. Late afternoon, Fr. Udovic will give an orientation tour of some of the famous landmarks of Paris. After the tour, we’ll have our 7:00 p.m. welcome dinner at a local restaurant. (B in-flight, D)

14, THURSDAY
Paris

A fascinating day is in store for us as Fr. Udovic gives us a tour of some of the Vincentian sites in Paris. Morning visits begin with the motherhouse of the Vincentians on rue de Sèvres. Highlights of this visit will include the magnificent chapel with its reliquary containing St. Vincent’s remains, and the accompanying Vincentian Museum. We will also visit the nearby motherhouse of the Daughters of Charity and the burial place of Saint Louise de Marillac. Then on to the nearby church of St. Sulpice. After time for an independent lunch, Fr. Udovic will take the group on a walking tour of Vincentian sites beginning with the Place de la Bastille; we’ll see the Visitation Chapel, the Place des Voges, St. Gervais, Ile St. Louis and end at the Ile de la Cité, where we’ll also visit the archaeological dig under the parvis. The evening will be free with an independent dinner. (B)

15, FRIDAY
Folleville, Amiens, Paris

A full-day excursion with Fr. Udovic as guide is planned from Paris to Folleville and Amiens. The Congregation of the Mission had its origins in a sermon given by St. Vincent in the parish church at Folleville. Upon arrival, coffee and refreshments will be served, followed by our visit to the church. At 1:00 p.m. enjoy lunch together in Amiens. Then we’ll visit the Cathedral of Notre Dame at Amiens. Begun in 1220, this magnificent cathedral has an elegant nave, the highest in France. The interior has late-medieval stained-glass windows and an 18th-century wrought-iron screen. Later, we’ll travel through the beautiful French countryside and return to Paris. (B,L)
16, SATURDAY
Paris
Joop will give us instructions on collecting the large suitcases for his long drive to Dax. He will be departing for Dax immediately after the morning tour. Everyone will need to keep a small carry-on with whatever you need until arrival in Dax on Monday. You are welcome to keep your large suitcase with you; however, you will need to be able to get your luggage on and off the train quickly. With Fr. Udovic as our guide, the group will be introduced to some additional Vincentian sites in Paris. Among these are the original site of Saint Lazare, and the churches of St. Laurent, Ste. Marguerite and Saint Nicolas-des-Champs. Our touring will be complete by early afternoon. (B)

17, SUNDAY
Paris
The day is yours to enjoy Paris and “do your own thing.” The Paris Vision Tour service and other Parisian companies offer a variety of half- and full-day side trips to choose from, including such sites as Monet’s studio and gardens at Giverny. (B)

18, MONDAY
TGV, Dax, St. Paul Les Dax
Early morning, a Parisian motorcoach will arrive at the hotel for the short transfer to the Paris Montparnasse Station. We have reserved seats on the train to Dax. Relax and enjoy the comfort of the TGV (high-speed train system). Late morning, we’ll already be in Dax, in the southwest corner of France. Joop will meet us at the station and we will have time for an independent lunch, followed by a short tour. Then we will drive seven kilometers north of Dax to visit the Berceau-de-St. Vincent de Paul (Cradle of St. Vincent de Paul), which was the saint’s birthplace. On the church square by the large oak, where Vincent kept his father’s flocks, is the house where Vincent was born. We will also visit the church containing the baptismal font where Vincent was baptized. From here we continue to our nearby hotel. After check-in, there will be time to relax before our 7:00 p.m. dinner together at the hotel. (B,D)
19, TUESDAY
Toulouse, Carcassonne
We’ll get an early start today and travel east to Languedoc, one of the great old provinces of southern France. Our first stop will be the ancient city of Toulouse and its university, where St. Vincent studied and received his degree. After an independent lunch, we’ll continue east and slightly south. Our destination is Carcassonne, the greatest medieval fortress city of Europe. Tonight’s dinner is independent, and there are many fine restaurants within the walled city. (B)

20, WEDNESDAY
Pont du Gard, Avignon, Lyon
We’ll again get an early start, as we need to cover quite a bit of distance. Most of our journey this morning will be via motorway. We’ll detour from the main road to visit Pont du Gard, the spectacular ancient Roman aqueduct. After this stop, we continue to the town of Avignon. Protected by its ramparts, the historic core of the city is a lively center for art and culture. For 68 years in the 14th century, it was the residence, first, of the seven French popes and then of three others once Pope Gregory XI had returned to Rome. After time for an independent lunch and exploration, we’ll leave Avignon and again travel by the motorway north to the large city of Lyon. Following hotel check-in, we’ll have an independent dinner to sample the justifiably famous cuisine Lyonnais. (B)

21, THURSDAY
Pérouges, Châtillon-sur-Chalaronne, Lyon
Following breakfast, we’ll journey to the hilltop medieval village of Pérouges, where many scenes from the movie Monsieur Vincent were filmed. We next visit Châtillon-sur-Chalaronne—a lovely town with ramparts, a 15th-century covered market, and 11th-century castle ruins. Late morning, we’ll visit the Gothic church where St. Vincent de Paul was pastor. Following this visit, we’ll have our 1:00 p.m. lunch before returning to Lyon, where the remainder of the afternoon and evening will be free. (B,L)
22, FRIDAY
Tournus, Beaune
After breakfast, we’ll get back on the motorway and head north to the area of France known as Bourgogne. We will stop in Tournus to see the magnificently restored Romanesque church. We continue to the town of Beaune, which lies in the center of the Côte d’Or wine-producing area. After time for an independent lunch, we’ll tour Hôtel-Dieu, built in the 15th century as a hospital. (This is typical of the hospitals that the church operated in the time of St. Vincent de Paul.) In the museum here, we’ll see the elaborate altarpiece of The Last Judgment by the Flemish artist Roger van der Weyden. We’ll end the day with a visit to one of the many local wine cellars. Dinner will be independent. (B)

23, SATURDAY
Beaune, Joigny, Paris, Roissy
After visiting Beaune’s famous farmers’ market, we begin our journey back to the area around Paris. We’ll stop in Joigny to visit some of the sites associated with St. Vincent. After our 1:30 p.m. closing gala lunch, we’ll travel to Roissy-en-France, near the Paris-Charles de Gaulle Airport. Food service is available at the hotel for independent dinner. (B,L)

24, SUNDAY
Return
After one last delicious French breakfast, Joop will drop us off at Paris-Charles de Gaulle Airport for our return flight to Chicago. We are certain your Vincentian Heritage Tour of France has been richly rewarding — and lots of fun! (B, L in-flight)
